✿ Genentech Welcomes New Practitioners: Insights in Industry ✿

On an inspiring day at the Genentech campus in South San Francisco, DSHP in partnership with Genentech proudly hosted a group of 20 new practitioners eager to explore a future in the biotech industry.

The day started off with a campus tour which offered our new practitioners a behind-the-scenes look at Genentech's cutting-edge facilities and a history of the company. After a catered lunch, the attendees were then treated to a panel discussion led by a group of Genentech employees and their path to industry in the pharmacy realm. This was a rare opportunity to hear directly from those who have navigated their careers within such a dynamic and innovative environment. The panelists shared insights on transitioning into the biotech field, highlighting the challenges, opportunities, and the immense potential for growth and impact that defines a career at Genentech.

Upcoming

- Several events planned, please check your e-mails
- Dinner Programs upcoming listed

The day culminated in a networking session, fostering connections between our new practitioners and current Genentech employees. This was not just an opportunity to exchange business cards but a chance to build lasting relationships with industry peers, mentors, and future collaborators.

Stay connected with DSHP for more opportunities to engage, learn, and grow with our fellow industry partners.
